

The future after Coronavirus

International Survey
• May-June 2020

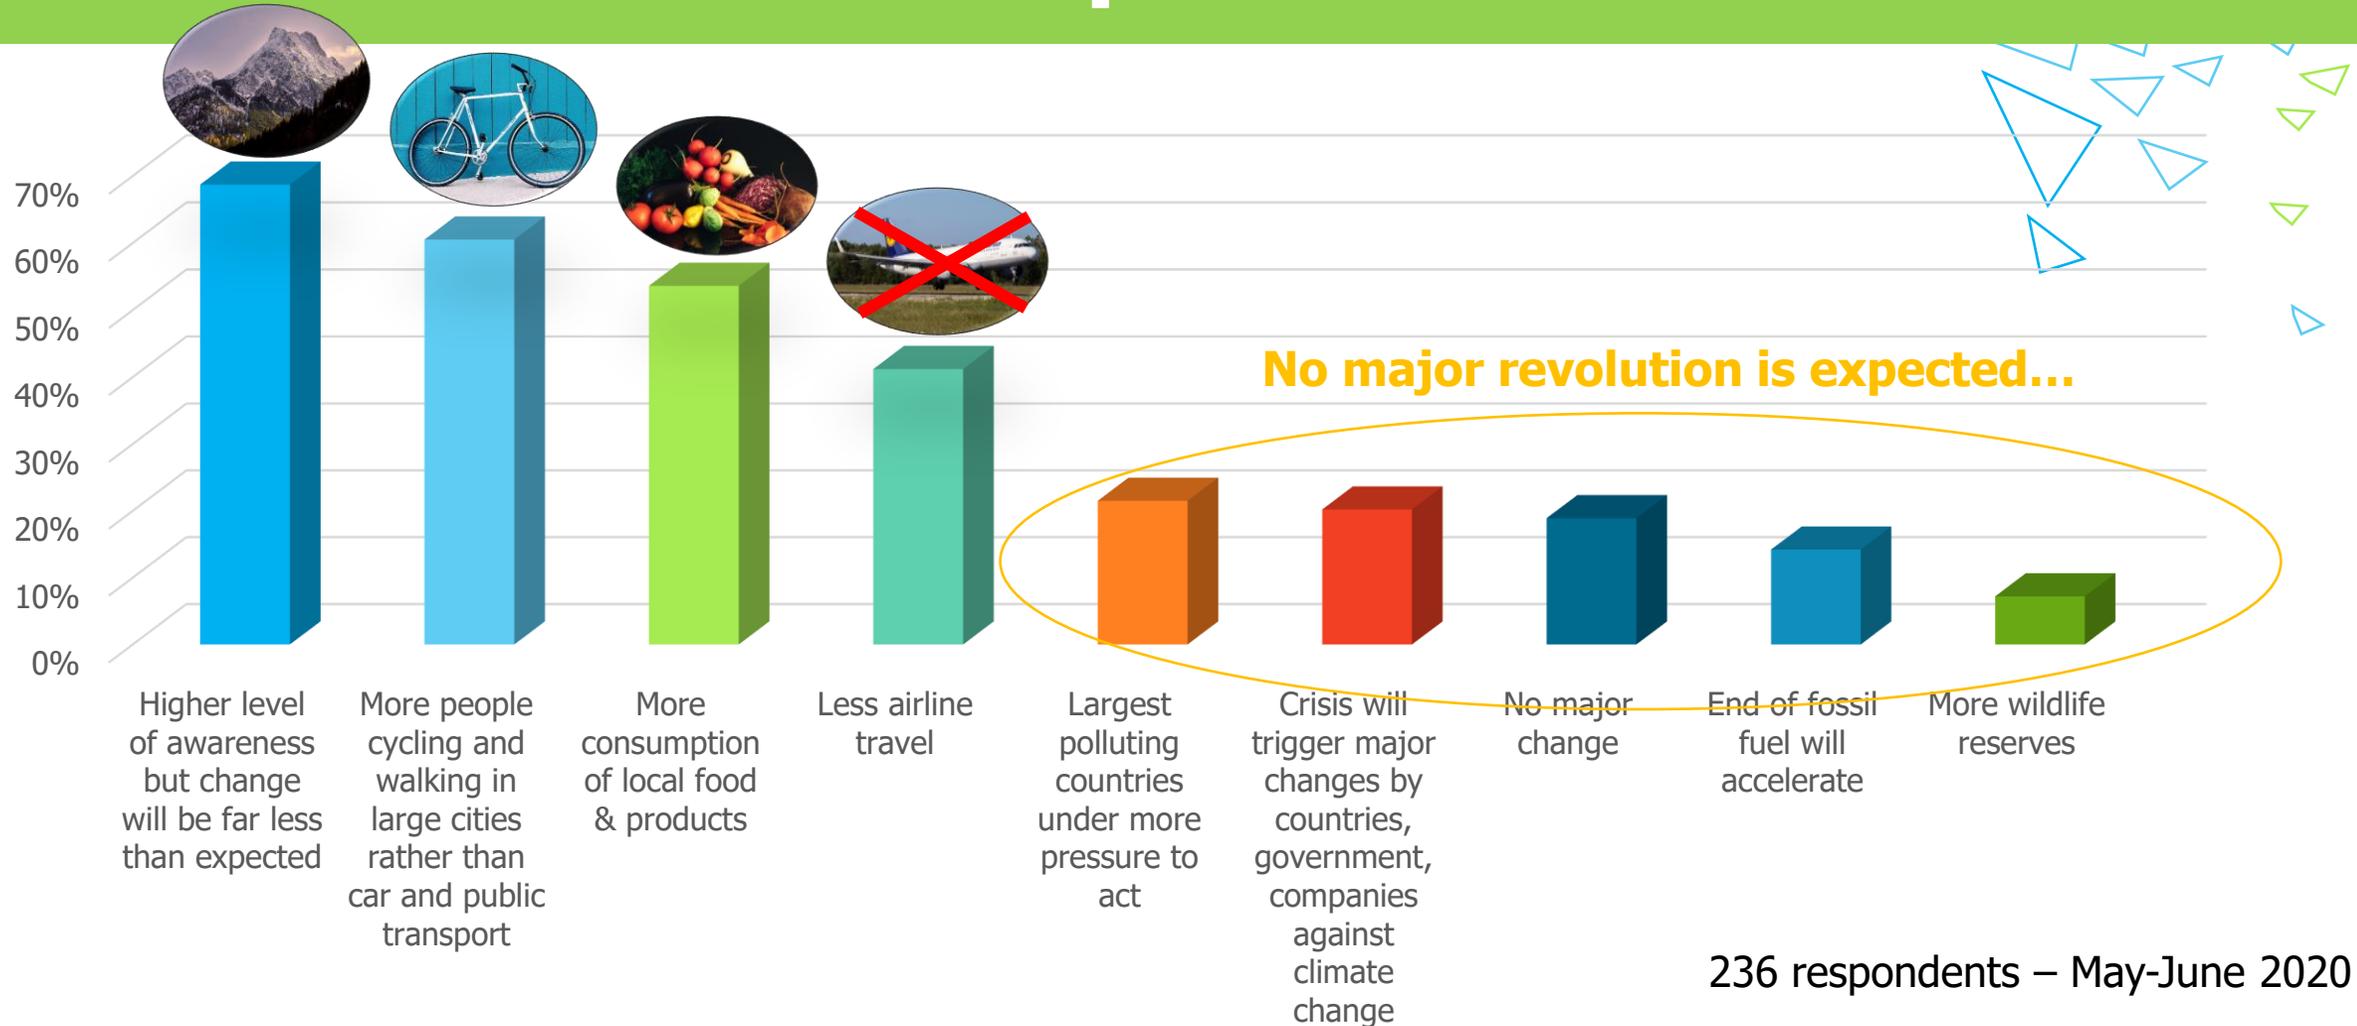

Once we are out of the crisis, what do you think will be the change related to the environment?

Quantitative Survey – 236 respondents

More awareness and small steps taken for the environment... but don't expect a revolution

Question: Once we are out of the crisis, what do you think will be the changes related to the environment? (several choices are possible)